THE RISE & FALL OF STEVE VIZARD

LEGEND
Financial Transactions
Associations

Other Business Interests

- Australian Children's Television Foundation — Position: Board Member
- Council for the Arts — Position: Board Member
- Victorian Major Events Company (May 2001 - 2005) — Position: Chairman
- council of trustees National Gallery of Victoria (1998-2004) — Position: President
- Melbourne University — Position: Board Member
- Vizard Collection Contemporary Australian Art
- World Swimming Championships — Position: Chairman
- Multiple Sclerosis Society of Victoria — Position: Board Member

"Philanthropic" Interests

Vizard Foundation — donated $250,000 p.a. — located at Vizard Collection Contemporary Australian Art

Set up to provide a 100% tax deduction. The foundation provided Victoria's public galleries with art works and a hostel for country Victorians visiting Melbourne for medical treatment.

Owner: Rural Property — lived at — brother-in-law / sister

Owner: Paintings — located at — Toorak

Andrew Knight — co-founder — Artist Services

John Fairfax Holdings — division of — David Syme & Co

mid 1990's bought 50 per cent share for $9 million former managing director: Stuart Simson — co-founded — Sportsview.com est. Sept 1999 — negotiated — internet broadcast deal with 4 Melbourne AFL clubs close friend & business associate met in mid 1990's Simson introduced Vizard to Syme Advisory Board

co-founded: Eddie McGuire

late 1990's sold to for $25 million: Granada board member gave Vizard insight into Fairfax

Artist Services — co-founder — Vizard Foundation

Artist Services — contracted to (1988 - 1991) — Channel 7

signed 5 year contract with annual retainer $1 million (1987 - 1991)

chairman (late 1990's - 2002)

proceeds

$11 million from proceeds of buisness interests, film and television productions

founder (1991 -)

close friend & business associate — committee member (1997-2005) — Melbourne Cricket Club

created conflict between Vizard & Telstra created further conflict between Vizard & Telstra internet broadcast rights over games at MCG received for services to the community (1997) — Order of Australia handed back order (May 2008)

negotiated

Steve Vizard

resides at acquired confidential & price sensitive information from — board member (Sept 1996 - Nov 2000) — Telstra announced sale of its 15% stake in July 2000

announced purchase of 51% shares in 21 July 2000

email from Ziggy Switkowski announcing pending merger Sausage Software & Solution 6 Telstra's plans to buy 40% stake 2/03/2000

wife (1988 -)

Sarah Jane Wilmoth — Director — Brigham

Director — "lent" $1 million

Computershare Limited

provided instructions to his external accountant

Deacons — lawyer — Ross Millen

sold $100,000 shares on behalf of Vizard March 2000

accountant (1991 - 2000)

Vizard accused Hilliard of stealing $3 million

set up for Vizard to trade shares 1999

Greg Lay — 10 per cent profits of share trades — Creative Technology Investments bought $250,000 shares on behalf of Vizard 14 July 2000

attempted to sell 12,000 shares 27 July 2000 — Keycorp Limited bought $500,000 shares on behalf of Vizard 7/03/2000

Failed application to High Court for an "Anton Piller" order - private search warrant to raid home of 1/12/2000

Roy Hilliard — made allegations of Pleaded guilty to 14 counts of false accounting. Hillard received 2 year suspended sentence.

Insider Trading

Federal Court 28 July 2005
- Fined $390,000
- Banned from company directorships for 10 years

Sausage Software Limited — Announced plans to merge with Solution 6 20/03/2000 — Solution 6 20/03/2000

DISCLAIMER

The information depicted in this chart is from open source news reports from the following websites:

www.abc.net.au/news
www.theage.com.au
www.theaustralian.news.com.au

This chart was prepared for demonstration purposes only and Insight Analysis & Consulting accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the information presented on this chart.

CHART PREPARED BY

CLAIRE LAMBELL

INSIGHT ANALYSIS & CONSULTING

PO BOX 527
BLACK ROCK, VIC, 3193
AUSTRALIA
P: + 61 (0)3 95150755
W: www.insightanalysis.com.au

E: enquiries@insightanalysis.com.au

(C) Insight Analysis & Consulting 2008

insight analysis & consulting®